Kirk In the News...

6/16/2009: Lawmakers offer 'practical' health reform plan

Dear Friends,

Poison pet food, dangerous toys, faulty products – all from China. The federal government and Chinese authorities failed to protect the American people from dangerous products imported from overseas. Congress will act soon on food and product safety legislation to protect the American people. I would like to know how you think we should handle this problem.

Very truly yours,

Sincerely,

Mark Kirk
Member of Congress

Given problems with poison pet food, dangerous toys and other defective products from China, please tell me what you think Congress should do to protect the American people: (Please check all policies that you agree with)

- ☐ Send US Food and Drug Administration inspectors to China
- ☐ Send US Consumer Product Safety Commission inspectors to China
- ☐ Increase fines on importers who bring unsafe food or products into the US
- ☐ Establish user fees to pay for new inspections of food and goods from abroad
- ☐ Ban companies who violate US standards from the US market for five years
- ☐ Ban companies who violate US standards from the US market forever
- ☐ Shut down all trade with China
